

Department of Accounting
Accounting Major Requirements
(2009-10 Catalog)

Year	Fall Semester	Spring Semester
Freshman	MATH 106 Stats BUSI 105 Evolution of Comm.
Sophomore	ACCT 203 Acct. Foundations I {INTR 101}	ACCT 204 Acct. Foundations II {ACCT 203}
	ECON 200 Principles of Econ. Outside elective #1
Junior	ACCT 353 Intermediate I {ACCT 203}	ACCT 354 Intermediate II {ACCT 353}
	ACCT 363 Tax Acctg. {ACCT 204}	ACCT 304 Advanced Managerial Accounting {ACCT 204}
	BUSI 322 Business Law I
	BUSI 306 Business Finance {ACCT 203}
	Outside elective #2
	BUSI 305 Admin & Org. {ACCT 203, BUSI 105, and ECON 200} OR BUSI 307 Marketing {BUSI 105 and ECON 200}
Senior	ACCT 393 Developing and Auditing Reporting Systems {ACCT 353}	ACCT 403 Contemporary Issues {Senior standing}
	ACCT 373 Advanced Acctg. {ACCT 354}	ACCT 364 Service Learning {VITA}
	BUSI 382 Business Law II

Key:

Courses in bold are required for accounting majors
{Courses listed in parentheses are prerequisites}

Notes:

- BUSI 382 may be taken before BUSI 322.
- Other than the Accounting Foundations courses (ACCT 203 and 204) the accounting courses are offered once a year in the semesters indicated above.
- For those courses which straddle semesters, check the college catalog or on-line schedule to determine which semester the course is offered by the respective departments.
- The tax course (ACCT 363) may be taken either in the fall semester junior or senior year.
- The list of outside electives are on the back page.

Accounting Major Outside Elective List

Broadening Requirement: Select two of the following eleven courses from those listed below:

CLAS 224. Word Elements
COMM 333. Organizational Communication
ENGL 301. Advanced Composition
HIST 319. History of the Contemporary World
MATH 151. Calculus I
PHIL 201. Critical Thinking: An Introduction to Logic
PHIL/RELG 207. Ethics: Philosophical and Religious
PHIL 330. Theories of Knowledge
POLS 320. The United States Congress
PSYC 237. Industrial/Organizational Psychology
SOC 344. Sociology of Work